This book is full of practical, easy to do "fun/creative/silly/joyful" activities for the family. Each activity lists suggested ages for kids and provides instructions to carry out each activity. Section 1 is pure inspiration - how to look up from the "to do list" of life and remember to have FUN during the ride.What I love most about this book is that it's so accessible. Unlike so many similar "parenting" books, it's not a lofty, unreachable list of complex, elaborate activities that render me immobile with anxiety. It's frankly the opposite - most activities don't require a list of special items - just the inspiration that this book provides and what you have around the house. My daughter (age 12) had so much flipping the pages and randomly selecting activities that she can't wait to do. If nothing else, it reminds me of the importance of experiencing joy every day with the kids - a great message! .3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. What matters is the fun we put in childhood and what will stand out ...By Karen B.This book is genius in that it's the simple things in life. What matters is the fun we put in childhood and what will stand out when our children have children. Happiness transcends generations and I love the reminders and ideas of ways to inject fun into the daily grind. Some of these we've done and do on a regular basis but who couldn't use more laughs? I also LOVE the quotes along the way and the research put into this book. A must have for anyone with children of all ages. It's nice to see the world through our children's eyes and this book helps to keep things fresh and interesting.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Fun anywhere!!!By Amy CrouseWhat a great book! It's so much more than a list of things to do. The research on the health and happiness of families provides a meaningful context for the ideas. The thoughtful quotes are like gifts sprinkled throughout the book. As a parent and an educator, it's a great resource to go to when looking for ideas. Many are adaptable and all of them can be tailored to your own family with your own added creativity! The book inspires you to be more present with your kids and shows you how easy it can be. If you're intimidated by "The Pinterest Moms", then this book is perfect. Donna shows you how to find fun in the most simple of places! Recommend!!!

As seen on TODAY and in Parade magazine. Take the fast-track to FUN! With over 400 games, activities, crafts, projects, and more, you'll be ready to shake up a rainy afternoon, enjoy unplugged family fun on the weekend, turn long car rides into game time, and create homemade crafts your kids will remember for years to come. These accessible activities require little more than items from around the house and a dash of imagination. Activities cover a wide range of ages, so every member of the family can feel engaged and excited. Donna Bozzo has shared her prescription for infusing tons of fantastic fun into your days with millions of people on television and in magazines. Now she gives you 427 easy-peasy ideas to help you to put more fun in your family's life any and every day. Try her...

• Five-minute fun fixes
